Lakeside Arts: Eye to Eye: Selected Works from the Lambirth Collection

All Ages. 2 July – 28 August. Free.

An exhibition of 125 works by seventy 20th-century and contemporary British artists selected from the private collection of Andrew and Sarah Lambirth. The works are in a range of materials - oil paintings, watercolours, drawings, prints – and feature a number of different subjects. Andrew is a University of Nottingham alumnus who went on to a successful career as a writer, art critic and curator. For twelve years he wrote a weekly column as art critic for The Spectator. The exhibition includes some famous names such as Maggi Hambling, Eileen Agar and John Craxton, as well as artists who are less well known. Andrew particularly championed artists who he felt had been unjustly overlooked by the art establishment and many of the acquisitions have resulted from the friendships he's formed with the artists he wrote about. Find out more.
